Introduces a Training Seminar Featuring the CCTI Curriculum

Offering Healing and Hope for Children in Crisis

Core Module : Trauma and Crisis Care

October 18-20, 2010

Abuse, poverty, abandonment, parental or caregiver drug addiction, sexual exploitation, HIV/AIDS, street life and many other experiences have forever changed the once-enjoyed happy, safe landscape of childhood for millions of children.

This "Trauma and Crisis Care" core module presents foundational issues and principles that provide an understanding of children's traumatic experiences and the resulting impact of trauma. Additionally, this module deals with basic prerequisites to planning and implementing biblical interventions in order to bring healing and hope to hurting children.

Lessons will include:

- Understanding Trauma in Children
- The Cycle of Violence and Intervention
- Trauma, Loss and Grief
- Trauma's Impact on Behavior
- STOP Model of intervention
- Children's Emotional Health in Trauma
- Spiritual Nurture for Wounded Children
- Care for Caregivers

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

October 18-20, 2010

Seminar Cost:

$125/person,

$175/married couple

Includes registration/materials/lunch 3 days

Registration Deadline: 09/18/2010

Curriculum Developer:

"No matter what one's occupation, everyone will come in contact with children in crisis. They may be encountered through family, community, or church and we all need to know how to respond to these hurting children in order to bring healing and restore hope to their lives so that they can reach the potential and purpose for which God created them."
